

Black Mud

Black Mud

a film by Chelovek 29

A WESTWARD JOURNEY OF SHORT TERM GAIN

CHELOVEK PICTURES IN ASSOCIATION WITH INTELLECT PICTURES PRESENTS "BLACK MUD" STARRING JON RHYS CHRISTOPHER TYLER AND ASHLEY DANE CLARK WRITTEN BY ANDREW STACK
DIRECTED BY HOWIE CHEUNG PRODUCED BY ROBERT MENTOV EDITED BY SERSE KOLESNYAK VASILY VERBYNI EXECUTIVE PRODUCERS ADRIANO TRAPANI NIKOLAI EFIMOV & ROBERT MENTOV
SCREENPLAY BY ADRIANO TRAPANI PRODUCED BY ROBERT MENTOV NIKOLAI EFIMOV DIRECTED BY ADRIANO TRAPANI

CHELOVEK 29

INTELLECT PICTURES

SYNOPSIS

Black Mud is a coming of age story about two orphaned brothers who travel cross country to the Alberta oil sands in search of a new life. Along the way, they learn to depend on one another, but tensions grow as money gets tight. On the brink of giving up, Alex, the older brother, meets Flora, a young drifter, who insists on coming with them in exchange for a place to stay in Alberta.

Directed by

Adriano Trapani Writing Credits (in alphabetical order)

Music by

Andrew Stack Cinematography by

Robert Mentov Film Editing by

Howie Cheung Casting By

Nick Butler

Jonathan Oliveira Sound Department

Nikolai Efimov ... sound editor

Luke Gellatly ... sound mixer Camera and Electrical Department

Jeff Kenneth Lee ... gaffer

Cast:

Ashley Tredenick
(Christina)

Jon Rhys
(Alex)

Robert Nolan
(Officer)

Christina Dixon
Social Worker

Michael Chwastiak
(Reggie)

Patrick Gilson
(Joseph)

Ashley Dane Clark
(Flora)

Film submitted to the next festivals:

Tiff

Vancouver

AFI Fest

Moscow

"Calgary"

Venice

"Chicago"

Montreal
IFF
Kiev film fest