The directors

Yannick Lecoœur

Born in 1976, Yannick Lecoœur likes to use his talents in many fields: sketch artist, director, musician... But what he like the most is animation cinema. He has directed several music videos, and has also successfully created two stage shows that mix music and animation. He has also been teaching the art of animation in several workshops, working with children as well as adults. He is currently working on a TV special adapting traditionnal tales from the five continents of the world, using his favourite technique: cutout animation.
